crowdFunnit Helps William Morales Share Birthday With Community

Young autistic boy has a community birthday party to bring awareness against alienation and bullying.

Port St Lucie, FL: Working with crowdFunnit™ Tricia Morales, plans to “STRIKE” alienation and bullying, making her son William’s upcoming bowling birthday a community celebration. Festivities take place Sunday, August 20th, 2017, 1-3 PM at SuperPlayUSA with support from Duffy’s Sports Grill, 1600 NW Courtyard Circle, Port St Lucie, FL 34986.

As an honored guest, you are invited to have a super time at SuperPlayUSA. There is no admission cost to attend the party, however, discounted party passes will be available to all children that attend for $10 ($18 value) graciously provided by SuperPlayUSA, providing 2 hours of bowling, shoe rental, equipment use, party food from Duffy’s: pizza and drinks, an Arcade Swipe Card and of course delicious birthday cake from Magnolia Cakes & Confections! Celebrate William’s birthday and stay as long as you want to play!

crowdFunnit, an initiative of the 501(c)3 nonprofit Cherab Foundation, is dedicated to improving the lives of those who are bullied and alienated, fostering acceptance, compassion and friendship through open-invite birthday parties. William, who has autism, will be turning 13 years old. Not only is William friendless, but he is bullied. His mother Tricia said, “My heart is breaking at the questions my son asks me, "Am I weird mom?", "Is there something wrong with me mom?". Let’s support William and show him he truly has friends by making this the best birthday of his life! Proceeding his party, William and his family are invited as special guests at the Navy Seal Museum in Ft Pierce. This will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of William’s life, a dream come true as he would love to someday be a part of the US Military.

William and his family, SuperPlayUSA, Duffy’s Sports Grill, PSL Police Athletic League (PAL), ACEing Autism, along with the crowdFunnit team look forward to hosting you, extending the invitation to like-minded, kindhearted individuals to come out for a day of fun, food, friendship, games and of course a bowling themed birthday party. For those that are not able to attend, William loves receiving and opening mail. You can mail birthday cards to William: William’s Birthday C/o Officer Richard Wilson Port St Lucie Police Athletic League (PAL) 2101 SE Tiffany Ave Port St Lucie, FL 34952

Through crowdFunnit, Tricia’s hope for William’s upcoming 13th birthday is simple: For people to attend and bring children, including those who are just like him, to show him that people do care about him, that there are people out there who are compassionate, and that not everyone is a bully. "Please help my boy smile."

crowdFunnit Crowd-Sources Special Events For Special Kids: crowdFunnit, a project of the 501(c)3 nonprofit Cherab Foundation, was created to bring people together, raising awareness about differences while fostering acceptance and compassion. Helping a friendless child celebrate a birthday is just an incredible mechanism in which to help make this happen. The party itself and any media attention it brings will help fight bullying at the root while the community connections will exist long after the party ends.
